

Grape Pomace Processing

Grape pomace is being recognized as an excellent source of grape seed oil and polyphenol rich flours. Nebraska Screw Press is a world leader in grape pomace processing equipment and with almost a decade of research and experience invested, NSP can find the right equipment solutions for your grape pomace recovery project.

Our firm will help you find what you need and assist you in the development and commissioning of your pomace value adding project, including pursuit of potential grant funding.

Contact us for references, pricing and further information regarding your next project.